Dear Mr. Silverstein,

The President of Georgia has studied your letter attentively. I am responding on his instructions.

Georgia having overcome the totalitarian past, the tragedy of domestic conflicts, bloodshed and difficulties of transition appreciates any positive step toward peace and stability in the world. In this respect the International Year for Culture of Peace beginning with One Day in Peace presents an opportunity to help solve global problems of the world community, to achieve a more stable, fair and just world.

Georgia supports declaring the Year 2000 as the International Year for Culture of Peace and beginning it with One Day Peace on January 1, 2000.

Sincerely,

Rusudan Beridze
